

PAWS FOR READING

Where stories come to life,
and tails start wagging!

Looking for a reading buddy who never interrupts, never judges, and thinks every story is the best story ever?

Meet Paws for Reading at GHHS!

This unique program invites readers of all ages to share books with our shelter dogs and cats, giving animals comforting human interaction while helping readers build confidence, practice skills, and simply enjoy the magic of storytelling.

Ready to volunteer?

All readers must complete a brief GHHS volunteer application and orientation before their first visit.

Who can Participate?

- Ages 6–15 (with parent/guardian)
- Ages 16+ may participate independently
- All reading levels welcome

When/Where?

- Sunday - Saturday | 10 AM - 3 PM
- One-Hour Time Slots | Two Families per hour
- Locations:
  - Cat Room
  - Outdoor Dog Kennels (weather permitting)
  - The Haven

For more info: ghhs.org/paws-for-reading

Change a life
over storytime.
Because sometimes the best listeners
have paws.